Broken Arrow is about to get its third Walmart Supercenter thanks to strong demand at its other two stores.

Walmart has a temporary hiring center set up at 25101 E. 71st St. in Broken Arrow.

Walmart is interviewing to fill about 350 jobs in its Broken Arrow store that should open this fall. The company is accepting applications in a temporary hiring center located at 25101 E. 71st St. in Broken Arrow.

"We are excited to add this Walmart to Broken Arrow and bring good jobs with career opportunities to the area," said Store Manager Tammy Claunch, who started her career in 1981 as a part-time cashier in Bentonville, Arkansas.

The hiring center will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday, June 26 and from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, June 27. Both part-time and full-time positions are available. Applications are also available online at Walmart Stores.

Most of the workers hired for the latest Broken Arrow Walmart will begin work in August to help prepare the store for its fall opening.
